Catholic Social Services Names New Board President

May 19, 2008 (Dayton, Ohio) - Catholic Social Services of the Miami Valley (CSSMV) today announced James Ghory, Jr. as its new Board of Trustees president.

Ghory has been a member of the Board of Trustees for the past five years. In 2006 he founded the Pat Rupp Memorial Golf Tournament, a fundraiser which helps to support the children and family services of CSSMV.

Ghory is a Financial Advisor in Morgan Stanley's Beavercreek office. Active in the community, he serves on the board of the Kettering Rotary where he started the Kettering Mayor's Charity Ball. In 2007 the Rotary honored him with the 2007 "Service Above Self" award for his contributions. Ghory is also past president of the Kettering/Moraine/Oakwood Chamber of Commerce and is active on several Chaminade-Julienne High School development department committees.

Ghory holds a BA from Sonoma State College and an MBA in Management from Golden Gate University.

Ghory and his wife, Susan, are parishioners of St. Charles Borromeo Parish in Kettering.

Ghory assumes the position formerly held by Chris Olinsky, who served on the CSSMV board for the past eight years and as board president for the past year.

About Catholic Social Services

Catholic Social Services offers a continuum of social services to assist people of all faiths. Programs of CSSMV build families and help empower individuals through actions of faith, service and charity.
