Dayton Metro Library TALK TABLES

Would you like to practice your English conversational skills in a friendly, casual atmosphere? Talk Tables provide an opportunity for individuals to engage in conversation. Available at the Main Library, Huber Heights and Kettering-Moraine Branches.

Dayton Metro Library LANGUAGE LEARNING RESOURCES

The Library offer numerous ESOL materials in print, electronic, and audio formats to assist you in mastering English, available at the Main Library and all Branch locations. Two free online learning programs are available at DaytonMetroLibrary.org/research/databases. You will need a FREE Dayton Metro Library card number and PIN to access these from home:

Transparent Language Online: Self-paced courses build listening, speaking, reading and writing skills in more than 100 different languages.

Mango Languages Online: A self-paced, language learning resource offering more than 70 language courses focused on practical conversation.

Foreign Language Collection

The Library offers books in both print and digital format in many languages. Browse the collection on our shelves, or go to OverDrive and select World Languages to borrow eBooks for adults, teens and children in Arabic, Spanish, Chinese, French, German, and Russian.
